

NATURAL HISTORY INSTITUTE

INTEGRATING ART, SCIENCE, AND HUMANITIES

Drawing from the Collections:

The Art of Natural History Illustration

Julie Comnick

Artist and Educator

Friday, Saturday & Sunday
March 2-4, 2018

Participant Cost: $150

Full-Time Student Cost (20% Discount): $120

Space is limited, so call (928) 863-3232 or email info@naturalhistoryinstitute.org to save your spot!

Subject matter will be selected from plant, bird and insect specimens in the Natural History Institute collections. In this hands-on workshop, participants will learn illustration techniques including drawing in graphite and pen-and-ink, and painting in gouache and watercolor. ALL MATERIALS ARE INCLUDED!

- Friday, 4-6PM: A survey of historic and contemporary approaches to scientific illustration and an orientation to the NHI collections.
- Saturday, 9AM-4PM: Technical instruction, individual feedback, and open studio worktime.
- Sunday, 9AM-NOON: Completion of projects and an open house exhibition.

All participants will leave the workshop with several completed illustrations!

126 N. Marina St., Prescott, AZ 86301

(928) 863-3232 ~ info@naturalhistoryinstitute.org

